

Baton Rouge Free Learning Disabilities Conference

Saturday, April 21, 2012 9:30-3:00

Redemptorist Elementary School located at 3655 St Gerard in Baton Rouge

The fourth annual conference is planned for parents and professionals to participate in sessions designed to enhance student success.

Topics include:

"Executive Skills: What are they? Why are they important?, and How can we improve them?" by William B. Daigle, Ph.D.

"Experience the Frustrations of Learning Disabilities" by Georgann Mire (Mire Consulting)

"Effective Discipline Techniques" by Belynda Gauthier (LaCapitalAreaCHADD)

"Children with LD's Have Rights TOO!" by Kara Shupe of Families Helping Families of GBR

"Dyscalculia" by Patsy Keenan of the Brighton School

"Student Self Advocacy" by Alicia Kelly (Episcopal High School)

"Reading and Technology Team Up at Redemptorist - Tour the Lab" by Karen England and Peggy Fairchild (Redemptorist Elementary School)

This free event is sponsored by Redemptorist Elementary School, LaCapitalAreaCHADD, Louisiana Branch of the International Dyslexia Association (LaBIDA), Mire Consulting, Families Helping Families of Greater Baton Rouge, Greater Baton Rouge Literacy Coalition and The Brighton School. Registration is limited. To register, send an email to ladyslexia@yahoo.com

Georgann Mire

Learning Disability Consultant

Mire Consulting

Facebook: Helping Kids with Learning Disabilities

www.mireconsulting.net <<http://www.mireconsulting.net/>>